Conducting test: In this test, you will conduct a vocal ensemble with two prepared pieces of music. The test consists of two parts:

- 1) You should conduct the first piece right through without comments.
- 2) You should rehearse the second piece for about fifteen minutes.

Assessment

The jury will assess your ability to convey a convincing interpretation to the choir, communicate with the ensemble and rehearse effectively and purposefully. The assessment is made in accordance with the criteria described above regarding test LS 25.1c.

Applicants who pass test LS 25.1c will be called for tests LS 25.2 och LS 25.6a.

LS 25.2 (Gehör, masterutbildning dirigering, kyrkomusiker)

The test is a basis for your ranking regarding Master's Programme in Church Music, KMKY1 (vocal profile).

Content

The test consists of three parts. You will work with the same piece of music in all parts.

- 1) You will sing a melody a prima vista. You can either sing both rhythm and melody at the same time or first read out loud the rhythm and then sing the melody.
- 2) You will listen to a recording and then describe chords and harmonic development. You can tell what you hear or play the piano and you get to listen several times.
- 3) You will sing one of the parts in the score (not the melody) while the leader of the test plays the other parts.

Assessment

The jury will assess your ability to sight-read and execute the given rhythms and melodies in a musical way. You are supposed to sing the melodies and read out loud (or "sing" without specific pitches) the rhythms. The jury will also assess your ability to identify chords and describe the harmonic process. The assessment is made in accordance with the criteria described above regarding test LS 25.2.

LS 25.6a (Kompletterande prov inom kyrkomusiker, vokal profil)
